Application for a Working Holiday visa

Form

1150

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia. As part of this application every person aged 18 years or over must declare that they will respect Australian values, as outlined below and obey the laws of Australia.

Australian values include respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual, freedom of religion, commitment to the rule of law, Parliamentary democracy, equality of men and women and a spirit of egalitarianism that embraces mutual respect, tolerance, fair play and compassion for those in need and pursuit of the public good.

Australian society also values equality of opportunity for individuals, regardless of their race, religion or ethnic background.

It is also important to understand that English is the national language.

Further information is contained in the Life in Australia booklet, however, you are not required to read the booklet. The booklet is available in a wide range of languages. If you would like a copy of the booklet it can be obtained from the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) website www.immi.gov.au

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Note: Any reference in this form to ‘country’ refers to ‘foreign country’ which is defined in paragraph 22(1)(f) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 as any country (whether or not an independent sovereign state) outside Australia and the external Territories.

Who should use this application?

Applicants for a first or second Working Holiday (subclass 417) visa.

Each applicant must apply individually and cannot include family members in their application.

Online applications

Applicants from the arrangement countries listed below under ‘Arrangement Countries and Regions’ may apply on the department’s website. Payment must be made by credit card for online applications. Further information is available from the department’s website www.immi.gov.au/visitors/

If you wish to apply online do not use this application.

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. Please be aware that providing us with fraudulent documents of false information can potentially lead to:

- your visa application being refused;
- your visa being cancelled;
- prosecution that may result in a fine and/or imprisonment;
- removal from Australia; and
- a ban on your returning to Australia for several years.

Visa overview

The Working Holiday program encourages cultural exchange and closer ties between arrangement countries by allowing young people to have an extended holiday supplemented by short-term employment.

A Working Holiday visa allows the visa holder to:

- enter Australia within 12 months of the date of visa grant;
- stay in Australia for up to 12 months;
- leave and re-enter Australia any number of times while the visa is valid;
- work in Australia for up to 6 months with each employer; and
- study for up to 4 months.

Arrangement countries and regions

Australia currently has reciprocal Working Holiday arrangements with:

- Belgium;
- Canada;
- Republic of Cyprus;
- Denmark;
- Estonia;
- Finland;
- France;
- Germany;
- Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) of the People’s Republic of China;
- Republic of Ireland;
- Italy;
- Japan;
- Republic of Korea;
- Malta;
- Netherlands;
- Norway;
- Sweden;
- Taiwan; and
- United Kingdom.

Australia continues to negotiate Working Holiday arrangements with additional countries. Information on whether any arrangements have been established with additional countries, is available from www.immi.gov.au/visitors/

Eligibility requirements

To be granted a Working Holiday visa, there are a number of eligibility requirements that applicants must meet.

All applicants must:

- be aged between 18 years and 30 years inclusive (at the time you apply);
- hold a passport from an eligible country, preferably valid for at least 6 months;
- not be accompanied by dependent children;
- be outside Australia when you apply and when the visa is granted (except applicants for a second Working Holiday visa, who can apply while in Australia – see ‘Second Working Holiday visa’ below);
- not have previously entered Australia on a Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa;
- not have entered Australia on a Working Holiday visa previously (except applicants for a second Working Holiday visa – see ‘Second Working Holiday visa’ below);
- have sufficient funds (generally AUD5,000);
- have funds for a return or onward ticket to depart Australia (or an actual ticket);
- have health insurance (recommended) to cover your stay in Australia. This can be obtained in your home country or in Australia. More information is available from www.immi.gov.au/visitors/;
- meet Australia’s health requirement – depending on the country you are from and your intentions in Australia (such as entering a hospital, health care area, childcare centre or classroom), you may need to undertake a medical examination. More information is available from www.immi.gov.au/visitors/working-holiday/417/eligibility.htm; and
- meet Australia’s character requirement. More information is available from www.immi.gov.au/allforms/.

Second Working Holiday visa

The second Working Holiday visa is available to people who have undertaken work for a minimum of 3 months (88 days in total) in a specified field or industry* in a designated area of regional Australia** on a first Working Holiday visa.

Specified work is any type of work in the list below:

- plant and animal cultivation:
  - cultivating or propagating plants, fungi or their products or parts;
  - general maintenance crop work;
  - harvesting and/or packing fruit and vegetable crops;
  - immediate processing of animal products including shearing, butchery in an abattoir, packing and tanning;

Note: Secondary processing of animal products, such as small goods processing and retail butchery is not eligible.
  - immediate processing of plant products;
  - maintaining animals for the purpose of selling them or their bodily produce, including natural increase;
  - manufacturing dairy produce from raw material;
  - pruning and trimming vines and trees.

* For further information please see ‘Specified work’ www.immi.gov.au/visitors/working-holiday/417/eligibility-second.htm

Information about harvest work opportunities in regional Australia is available from the Harvest Trail website www.jobsearch.gov.au/harvesttrail

Note: Some vacancies on the Harvest Trail website may not be in the above eligible postcodes.

- fishing and pearling:

- conducting operations relating directly to taking or catching fish and other aquatic species;
- conducting operations relating directly to taking or culturing pearls or pearl shell.

- tree farming and felling:

- felling trees in a plantation or forest;
- planting or tending trees in a plantation or forest that are intended to be felled;
- transporting trees or parts of trees that were felled in a plantation or forest to the place where they are first to be milled or processed or from which they are to be transported to the place where they are to be milled or processed.

- mining:

- coal mining;
- construction material engineering;
- exploration;
- metal ore mining;
- mining support services;
- oil and gas extraction;
- other non-metallic mineral mining and quarrying.

- construction:

- building completion services;
- building installation services;
- building structure services;
- heavy and civil engineering construction;
- land development and site preparation services;
- non-residential building construction;
- residential building construction;
- other construction services.

Specified work:

- does not need to be paid work.
Example: Work undertaken as a volunteer or through the Willing Workers on Organic Farms (WWOOF) scheme may also qualify if the work you undertook falls with the specified work definition above.
- does not need to be undertaken as a direct employee.
Example: Work in the list above as a contractor is eligible.
- must be listed above.
Example: Working as a nanny for a farmer would not be eligible.

In addition to the eligibility requirements for a first Working Holiday visa (see 'Eligibility requirements' above), applicants for a second Working Holiday must also have:

- entered Australia on no more than one Working Holiday visa previously; and
- done specified work in regional Australia for a minimum of 3 months (88 days in total) while holding a Working Holiday visa.

You can apply while you hold a first Working Holiday visa, or at a later date.

Applications can be made either in Australia or outside Australia. If you apply in Australia, you should lodge your application before your current visa ceases, and must be in Australia for the visa to be granted. If you apply outside Australia, you must be outside Australia for the visa to be granted.

If you apply for a second Working Holiday visa, you will need to provide evidence that you have worked for a minimum of 3 months doing specified work in regional Australia (see table of postcodes for regional Australia).

Acceptable evidence includes:

- a completed form 1263 Working Holiday visa: Employment verification, signed by your employer(s), which you can obtain from the nearest office of the department or from www.immi.gov.au/allforms/; and/or
- an original or certified copies of payslips, group certificates, payment summaries, tax returns and/or employer references.

Note: Providing form 1263 and additional evidence will allow your application to be assessed more quickly.

How much does the visa cost?

Payment must accompany your application and is generally not refunded if the application is unsuccessful.

To check the Visa Application Charge, see form 990i Charges, available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/990i.htm or check with the nearest office of the department.

Fees may be subject to adjustment at any time. Visa Application Charges may be subject to adjustment on 1 July each year. This may increase the cost of a visa.

Method of payment

In Australia

To make a payment, please pay by credit card, debit card, bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship. Debit card and credit card are the preferred methods of payment.

Outside Australia

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office where you intend to lodge your application as to what methods of payment and currencies they can accept and to whom the payment should be made payable.

How to apply

Step 1

Complete this application form.

Please use a pen, and write neatly in English using BLOCK LETTERS.

You must provide the address where you intend to live while your application is being dealt with. Failure to give a residential address in your application will result in your application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Step 2

Lodge your completed application, and required attachments (see Application checklist on page 6 of this form) as outlined below.

All applicants for a first Working Holiday visa can lodge their application by posting, faxing or hand delivering this form to any Australian Immigration office overseas. See www.immi.gov.au/contacts/overseas.

Applicants for a second Working Holiday visa can lodge their application by posting to:

2nd Working Holiday Centre
PO Box 1269
CAIRNS QLD 4870
AUSTRALIA

Do not send cash or your passport with your application.

What happens next?

Your application will be assessed. You may be asked to provide additional information to enable a decision to be made. You will be advised in writing whether your application has been approved. If your application is refused, you will be given reasons for the decision.

You should not make any irreversible travel arrangements until you receive written advice of the department's decision on your application.

Activating your Working Holiday visa

If you applied for your Working Holiday visa outside Australia, your 12 month stay period starts when you enter Australia. Your 12 month stay period will start if you pass through immigration clearance in Australia (the counter where you present your passenger card and passport), even if you are in transit or hold an Electronic Travel Authority or Maritime Crew visa.

If you are intending to transit or travel to Australia, and you do not want to start your Working Holiday visa, you should delay applying for this visa until you wish to commence your working holiday.

Important – change of personal/passport details

If you wish to change any details after you lodge your application, including your passport details, or if you wish to withdraw the application, please contact the department as follows:

- First Working Holiday visa applicants – Contact the Australian Government office where you lodged your application. Contact details for offices of the department are available on the department's website www.immi.gov.au/contacts/overseas/ or if you lodged your application online email evisa.whm.helpdesk@immi.gov.au
- Second Working Holiday visa applicants – e-mail 2ndWHM.Helpdesk@immi.gov.au

Your Working Holiday visa application is linked to the passport number provided in your application. If you are granted a Working Holiday visa, but do not provide the department with the details of any new passport you use to travel to Australia, you will experience significant delays at the airport and could be denied permission to board your plane.

Options for receiving written communications

An applicant may authorise another person to receive all communications, both written and electronic, about this application with the department. The applicant will be taken to have received any documents sent to that other person as if they had been sent to the applicant.

To do this please complete Part F Options for receiving written communications and form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient. For an explanation of what a migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient can do please read the sections below.

To change or end the appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient the department must be promptly advised in writing. This can also be done by using form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

An authorised recipient is someone you appoint to receive written communications about your application with the department.

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Exempt agents

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a sponsor or nominator for this visa application;
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Further information on migration agents

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Office of the MARA website www.mara.gov.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.immi.gov.au

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

About the information you give

The department is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-Citizens'. The information provided will be used for assessing your eligibility for a visa to visit to Australia.

The information provided might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, superannuation, review of decisions and registration of migration agents.

Relevant information about you will be disclosed to federal, state and territory police to assist in your location and possible detention in the event that you become an unlawful non-citizen. You will become an unlawful non-citizen if your visa ceases (by cancellation for breach of visa condition for example) or expires and you do not hold another visa authorising you to remain in Australia.

The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by the department of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from offices of the department, gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed.

The information provided on this form, including any information on your health, will be used to assess your health for an Australian visa and may be disclosed to the relevant Commonwealth, state and territory health agencies and examining doctor(s).

Form 1163i Health Requirement for temporary entry to Australia provides additional information on Australia's visa health requirements. Form 1163i is available at offices of the department or from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

The department is authorised under the Migration Act 1958, in certain circumstances, to collect a range of personal identifiers including a facial image, fingerprints and a signature from non-citizens, including from visa applicants. The department requires personal identifiers to assist in assessing your identity. The department is authorised to disclose your personal identifiers and information relating to your name and other relevant biographical data to a number of agencies including law enforcement and health agencies and to other agencies who may need to check your identity with this department. The information you provide may be disclosed to any Australian employer for whom you have worked to acquire eligibility for a further visa. Where the department obtains personal identifiers they will become part of your official record with the department.

The department is involved in international information exchanges with a number of countries, including the United Kingdom, the United States of America, Canada and New Zealand. These international information exchanges may involve the sharing of personal identifiers, including facial images and fingerprint data, collected by immigration agencies such as this department. If, as a result of this sharing between countries, there is a match with your personal identifiers, the department will disclose your biographical data, copies of travel and other identity documents or information from such documents, your immigration status and immigration history (which may include any immigration abuse and offences) and any criminal history information relevant to immigration purposes. The purpose of such disclosure would be to help confirm your identity and determine if you have presented to the department and the other agency under the same identity and with similar claims.

For more detailed information you should read information form 1243i Your personal identifying information, which is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or from any office of the department or Australian mission overseas.

Application checklist

This checklist is provided for your assistance and lists the required documents to include with your application. It is not a requirement of your application and does not apply to online applications.

Note: Processing of your application will be delayed if you do not provide all the required information and documents at the time of lodgement.

Note: Certified copies are copies authorised, or stamped as being true copies or originals, by a person or agency recognised by the law of the country in which you currently reside eg. police or notary.
